

Encore Entertainment

Vision Statement:

The vision of Encore Entertainment is to provide versatile, quality, entertainment to a variety of audiences.

Mission Statement:

Encore Entertainment is a subsidiary of Heritage Dance foundation, and a 501 (C)3 organization. Established in 2005, we seek to provide quality vocal and theatrical entertainment for corporate and community events.

Encore Entertainment

107 South Center Street
Goldsboro, N.C. 27530

Encore Entertainment
"Have Entertainment Will Travel"

Encore Entertainment

Have Entertainment Will Travel

Contact: John Stutts for information
107 South Center Street
Goldsboro, N.C. 27530
919-735-1075
Fax: 919-735-3346
encoreentertainment@aol.com
www.encore-entertainment.org

Have Entertainment

SUE NOBERS - Sue Nobers is not only a familiar face to regional theater patrons, but has appeared on small and large screen and stages in OH and PA. She is a charter member of Encore Entertainment and loves to share her joy of music, dance, and drama with audiences of all ages. She values her numerous professional honors but treasures audience smiles the most!

DEBORAH WRIGHT - Deborah Wright is an avid learner and performer of all things musical and theatrical. Throughout her years of artistic training, she has participated multiple in vocal, instrumental, and dance competitions. She currently uses her knowledge to write and direct children's musicals, coach a dance team for ministry and competition, and to perform with Encore Entertainment.

CANDY OWENS SMITH - As a core member of Encore Entertainment, Candy is a seasoned performer with ten years of piano and four years of voice. She has performed, and served as a director and music director, for over thirty years in regional theater; as well as, singing and serving on boards of choral groups.

JOHN STUTTS - Originally from Dillon, SC, John is a founding member of Encore and charter member of Encore Entertainment. He has more than 30 years experience in vocal and theatrical performance, and directing. With numerous regional theatre credits and awards, John's passion is performing. He also adds an artistic flair to the group as wardrobe and costume designer. An Air Force Retiree, John currently is Music Director for Encore Entertainment.

MICHAEL CORBITT - An award winning, professional, actor and singer, Michael graduated from East Carolina University with a BFA in Theatre Education and a minor in Music. A Disney Teacher of The Year Nominee, Michael has worked with such Broadway greats as Pat Hingle. A veteran of stage and film, Michael has performed for such companies as Walt Disney World, Busch Gardens, and Encore Entertainment. He has had many wonderful experiences in his professional career and he considers himself blessed.

Encore Entertainers

E N C O R E

Will Travel

KATHLEEN MEADOWS - Kathleen Meadows is a performer in vocal, dance and theatre. She has performed in community choirs and local productions, including Eastern Wayne High School Show Choir from 2001-2005. She now performs as a member of Encore Entertainment.

WANDA BECTON - Wanda Becton joined Encore Entertainment in 2006 and has performed in a variety of venues and events. Her experience as a director for both church choirs and community musical groups spans over 25 years. She is a member of the local community theatre and has over 30 years experience in theatre, musical performance and TV. She is most recently known for her portrayal as Hannah in The Book of Ruth.

DOLLY WITT - Dolly Witt is a singer and actor who joined Encore Entertainment in 2006. She has won several talent shows and was selected for an Air Force touring group as a vocalist and tour director. Dolly has performed in numerous community productions such as The Secret of Cell Block Seven as "Eleanor" and a television movie, Way Over Yonder as "Rosemary." Dolly formerly worked as a Fingerprint Technician for the FBI and served 28 years in the Air Force.

JIMMY MARTIN - Jimmy Martin has participated in every production Encore Entertainment has done. His claim to fame is emceeing pageants and civic affairs. He has been the featured vocalist in over 500 weddings. He has directed, produced and performed in the production of "His Last Days." Jimmy was also the emcee and performer for President Ronald Reagan's visit to Raleigh, N.C. in 1985. His local production credits include Oklahoma, My Fair Lady CRAIG MILLARD - Craig is best known to audiences as a singer, dancer, actor and director. His 30 years of experience has led him to regional theatre, television and film. Directorial credits include artistic director of the world premiere of "A Time to Dance"; director of "The Dixie Swim Club" and "Dearly Beloved". Craig's stage credits are numerous and include such roles as Hysterium in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and Bellamy in "The Fantasticks".